

Architects and Interior Designers Working Together

Wednesday February 10, 2010

Join a guided tour of a multi-use facility illustrating the successful collaboration of an Architect and Interior Designer.

AIA-NJ and NJ ASID will co-host a program at Princeton University to illustrate the adaptive reuse of 200 Elm Drive at Princeton University and the successful collaboration of the architect and interior designer.

AIA and CID CEUs pending approval, check the website for details closer to the program!

Building tours departing promptly at 5:00 and 5:30PM
Networking reception and dinner from 6:00 – 7:00PM
Panel discussion and Q&A by the Architect and ID starts at 7:00PM

Limited to 150 architects and interior designers.

Presenters:

Michael Hanrahan, AIA; Senior Associate, Clarke Caton Hintz
Marlyn Zucosky, IIDA, ASID; Principal, Westcott Studio

For more information and directions, please go to www.aianj.org.

Please reserve my space at the February 10th Architects and Interior Designers Program!

___ AIANJ / ASID Members $30.00
___ AIAS Members and Students $15.00
___ Guests $40.00

Name _____ Company _____
Address _____
AIA # _____ Phone/FAX _____
e-mail (required) _____

Check enclosed for $ _____ Bill my ___ VISA ___ MC
Name _____ credit card # _____
Amount _____ Expiration date _____
Signature _____

Please fax (with credit card info) or mail (with check) your RSVP to Lori Lee by January 25, 2010
Checks payable to AIA-NJ
Send to: Lori Lee, AIA-NJ, 414 Riverview Plaza, Trenton NJ 08611 phone 609.393.9891